

I am strongly opposed to any move by the FCC to allow increased ownership of the mass media by a single person or organization. Putting the transmission of news and information in the hands of fewer and fewer sources allows manipulation by those with a specific agenda and inhibits the growth of an informed electorate.